

Сценарий праздника "Come to us Merry Maslenitsa!"

Pupil 1: There are many holidays and traditions in our country.

Pupil 2: One of them is Maslenitsa or Shrovetide. It's an ancient Russian holiday, which dates back to the 9-th century. This holiday lasts for a week.

Pupil 3: Russian people celebrate it at the end of February or at the beginning of March.

Pupil 4: They say "Good-bye" to winter on these days.

Pupil 1: It is an old tradition to cook pancakes and eat them with sour cream, caviar, honey and butter.

Pupil 2: A pancake is the symbol of the sun.

Pupil 3: Shrovetide is the most cheerful of all Russian holidays.

Pupil 4: During this holiday we celebrate the beginning of spring. Not to participate in this holiday means to live in poverty for the rest of the year. Each day of Shrovetide has its own rituals. But winter doesn't want to go away.

Pupil 1: Come to visit us, Merry Maslenitsa! Come to sing, come to dance! Come to eat pancakes!

Pupil 2: Dear, our guest, Merry Maslenitsa!

To see you here with us we are so glad!

Can you hear ringing and voices? It's Maslenitsa riding on horses

On her horses black. With her servants young.

Pupil 3: The first day of Maslenitsa is called "Meeting". On that day people met Maslenitsa, invited her to their yards. Boys and girls sang songs and took a strawcrow of Maslenitsa and go with it to the village.
